Sir:

You recently met Mr. Alan K. Campbell, the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, at a Cabinet Meeting and suggested we might want to follow through on a contact with him. I have had a pleasant chat with him and he will be coming out late in the morning on Wednesday, 19 October, for some dialogue and some lunch. I plan to have, at the minimum, Messrs. Malanick, Janney and John McMahon together with him.

/s/ Jack
